We all want to have fun at Oktoberfest. To make sure we all enjoy ourselves, we have established a few rules:

1. Rucksacks and large bags will generally be banned from the Oktoberfest. Leave any non-essential items at home. You will make it into the Oktoberfest much quicker if you don’t bring any bags or rucksacks with you.

2. Any bags or rucksacks you do bring must not exceed a volume of three litres or a size of 20 cm x 15 cm x 10 cm.

3. Even if they fit in your smallest bag, the following items are also prohibited: aerosol spray cans with hazardous contents; corrosive or staining substances; objects that could be used to cut, slash or stab. Glass bottles are also banned.

4. Pushchairs are not permitted on the site all day on Saturdays, not on the public holiday for the Day of German Unity on 3 October. Furthermore, pushchairs will not be allowed onto the site from 6 p.m. on all other days. Security personnel may inspect pushchairs.

5. Bicycles, scooters, skateboards and similar are not permitted on the festival grounds.

6. Animals are not permitted at the Oktoberfest at any time (with the exception of assistance dogs).

7. Plan your journey. Where possible, find alternative forms of transport to underground lines U4 and U5 and Theresienwiese station. If you are arriving into the central railway station, you can also walk to the Oktoberfest. If you are travelling on the underground from the west, get off at Schwanthalerhöhe if possible. Please also use the underground (U-Bahn) lines 3 and 6, stops Goetheplatz and Poccistrasse.

8. Use all of the entrances around the Oktoberfest grounds. As in previous years, all entrances will be open (i.e. not closed off).

9. The Oktoberfest is at its best when there aren’t any large crowds. The Oktoberfest Barometer at www.oktoberfest.de shows you the best times for a quiet stroll around the site.

10. No matter how much fun you have, every trip to Oktoberfest has to come to an end some time. No visitors are permitted on the festival grounds between 1:30 a.m. and 9 a.m.

A Cordial Welcome to the Oktoberfest 2019

Wild Rides and Rustic Charm at the Greatest Folk Festival in the World

"O'zapft is!" – the barrel is tapped!" exclaims Munich’s Lord Mayor after opening the first cask of beer precisely at noon on Saturday, 21 September 2019, thus officially inaugurating the 186th Munich Oktoberfest.

Regular visitors spend the entire year looking forward to Wiesn delicacies such as roast on a spit, roast chicken, skewer-grilled fish and roasted almonds. The Oktoberfest experience includes merry-go-rounds, coconut shies and variety shows from bygone days, not to forget the adrenaline-boasting high-tech rides.

The Oide Wiesn area at the southern end of the Theresienwiese grounds evokes a feeling of pure Oktoberfest nostalgia with its historic fairground rides, a puppet theatre and museum tent. The musicians from the various brass bands that play around the Wiesn provide a soundtrack of Bavarian folk music for a relaxing, atmospheric way to start your day at Oktoberfest.
