What is the Munich City Pass?

The Munich City Pass is an all-inclusive adventure pass that is valid for 1 to 5 days. Within the selected days, you can visit all attractions free of charge. The City Pass also includes various discounts and an optional ticket for public transport. Your City Pass is a practical sightseeing package that organizes the most important aspects of your city trip.

What is the München Card?

What is the München Card? With the München Card you get discounts of up to 33% at the most popular Munich attractions. Save a lot of money on admission to Munich's museums and palaces. You get discounts on admission to the Deutsches Museum, the Lenbachhaus, the Pinakothek der Moderne and Nymphenburg Palace, among others. You can also book an optional public transport ticket with your München Card.

How should the public transport ticket be used?

There are a total of 13 zones in the MVV area. Zone M covers the inner area, the urban area of Munich: This includes the Sea Life Munich, Nymphenburg Palace with the Munich Botanical Gardens, the Deutsches Museum and the Lenbachhaus. The M-6 area includes Zone M and Zone 6, which allows you to travel in the inner city of Munich, the city area and to the airport. The local transport ticket for children is always valid for the entire network. When booking, please note that the children's ticket must include the name and date of birth of the accompanying person (at least 15 years of age) who is carrying the child's passport, identity card or passport.

Is there a pass for children and young people?

There is a reduced offer for children and young people. Children under the age of 6 do not receive a pass, as admission to most attractions in the respective city is free for them.

Are there special conditions for pensioners, pupils, students, severely disabled persons?

The Turbopass offer is already based on the advantageous conditions of our partners. Therefore, there are only the categories adults, young people and children. There are no other special conditions, you already receive a great offer!

What happens if I visit an attraction twice?

Each City Pass generally entitles you to one admission to each of our partner attractions during the period of validity. Please refer to the respective ticket for exceptions.
